Overview

Behind the Great Himalayas lies the travel world's best kept secret. Bhutan is known for its Buddhist culture and Gross National Happiness. To the local people traditional values, environmental preservation and good governance takes precedence over material things. Throughout the journey, you would see fluttering prayer flags and prayer wheels to demonstrate the importance of Buddhism in daily life. You would also experience magnificent ancient monasteries, sensational landscapes, and panoramic views of snowcapped mountains. Along with the Golden Triangle of Bhutan, in this itinerary you would also visit Gangtey/Phobjikha, one of the most beautiful glacial valleys.

Thimphu: Capital and the largest city of Bhutan - Only capital city in the world that does not have traffic lights - Main center of Commerce, Religion and Government in the country - Most modern city of Bhutan and has abundance of restaurants, internet cafes, nightclubs and shopping center. It is one of the few cities of Bhutan having ATM facilities.

Paro: Small town in the western part of Bhutan - Also home to Paro Airport, Bhutan's only International Airport - The valley has many isolated small villages and is known for red rice - Also home to most of Bhutan's oldest temples and monasteries.

Punakha and Wangdue: Punakha and Wangdue is located in the same valley. These two places are located within a distance of 13 km. Punakha was the capital of Bhutan and the seat of government until 1955 - The valley is fed by the Pho Chhu and the Mo Chhu rivers - It is one of very few places in Bhutan which offers Rafting facilities - It is the winter seat of the Je Khenpo (Chief Abbot) and the monk body at present.

Gangtey/Phobjikha: The famous Phobjikha Valley is located in Wangdue district, 68 km away from the Wangdue valley- Phobjikha is the winter roosting place for endangered black necked crane and the valley is considered one of the most beautiful glacial valleys in the Himalayas.
