Dive the World War II wrecks, the sunken decommissioned oil rig special only to Brunei found nowhere else in the world and many others. Learn about the history of the wrecks and the safe penetration techniques with our experienced team of instructors and small groups.

First, you'll learn to survey a wreck safely for potential dangers. On your second dive, learn to map a wreck so you can always find the points of interests. The next day, on your third dive, you'll finally penetrate the special finning techniques to penetrate the wreck safely.
