DAY04: SIEM REAP- Silk Farm in Puok, Artisan (B/L/D)

After breakfast will going to visit Silk Farm in Puok, established by a French NGO to revive Cambodia's beautiful silk production, and West Baray is fed by a series of channels, delivering water from the moats around the ancient city of Angkor Thom. Native Cambodians use the baray and its nourishing channels for irrigation, transportation, and tourism. Although a boat ride across the West Baray is not one of the most popular tourist activities in Cambodia, it is certainly one of the most awe-inspiring, to visit Wat Thmey(Killing Field) the monastery serves as an orphanage and school that is often visited by several tour buses. Although the temple remains a startling sight, visitors will hear the laughter of children and the sounds of daily Cambodian life in the background to remind visitors that life has certainly moved on from the once dreaded killing field.
