Land only – Valid till 30 Sep 2018 (min. 2pax)

Phnom Penh Highlights (Full day)

The artistry and architecture richness of the Khmer culture is evident in the capital city of Phnom Penh. Marvel at the oldest structure, Wat Phnom from the founding days of the city; the Royal Palace with the Silver Pagoda, which dates to the mid-19th century, and the Independence Monument, constructed more recently in the 1950s.

Learn more about Cambodia's history at the National Museum and walk back into the dark period of Cambodia's history by visiting the Tuol Sleng Museum, a former prison used during the Khmer Rouge regime and now a memorial to the dark period. Thereafter, you're free to bargain at the Russian Market and we will conclude the day by enjoying the sunset overlooking the Mekong River.

Bokor Highlands (2D1N)

In the morning, we head south to explore the Phnom Vor mountain that used to be a battle field during the civil war in Cambodia. Peek into rural Cambodian life set amidst acres of rice fields, pepper and fruit plantations. Enjoy fresh seafood lunch by the relaxing Kep seaside before proceeding to explore the Bokor Mountain national park. On a clear day atop Bokor Mountain, you can enjoy stunning views of Kampot and southern Cambodian islands. Overnight at Thansur Bokor Hotel & Casino resort.

Next day, visit Wat Sompov Pram, known as Five Boats Wat, to view the five oddly-sculpted rocks nearby that resembled boats. Built by the French in the early 1920s as part of the French township on Bokor Mountain, the Old Catholic Church still retains most of its beautiful interior. Lastly, visit the Black Palace, an old casino before heading back to Phnom Penh.

Kanika Sunset Cruise with Dinner (1h30mins)

Enjoy a one hour sunset cruise on Great Tonle Sap Lake, home to a complex ecological balance between water, plants, wildlife and humans. Once every year, the lake renews itself, expanding up to 10 times its former size. As the monsoon rains swell the Mekong River and force the Tonle Sap River to reverse its flow, millions of fish flock downstream to the lake, making it, for those months, the richest fishing ground in Southeast Asia.
