The classical tour itinerary featuring the ancient cities is a trip to Uzbekistan principal and most famous historical monuments - the grandiose must-see objects, which are an inherent part of Uzbekistan's image.

Medieval mosques, madrasahs and minarets, artisans' workshops, bustling bazaars surrounded by quiet narrow ancient streets, the burning Asian sun and cool nights, the fantastically delicious Uzbek cuisine and contrast between deserts and oases will make you deeply feel the aura of the oriental culture during this travel to Uzbekistan. Uzbekistan's greatest cities provide an ideal base from which to explore the country's rich and diverse cultural and historical heritage.

Classical Uzbekistan is a group tour to Uzbekistan; you can join any of the combined groups that would suit you best in terms of the tour's fixed date, duration and cost. We offer 2 options for the classical itinerary:

- 5 days (Tashkent - Samarkand - Bukhara)
- 8 days (Tashkent - Samarkand - Bukhara - Khiva)

Both groups travel inseparably throughout the basic portion of the itinerary (Tashkent - Samarkand - Bukhara). After Bukhara the first group (a five-day tour) departs, while the second group (an eight-day tour) continues to the fairy-tale Khiva.

Importantly, the classical itinerary forms the basis of the tour of Uzbekistan, which, if desired, may be extended through additional trips to other interesting regions in the country. All the extension programs we offer perfectly correspond with the basic itinerary and add more colours, notes, tastes and impressions to your travel in Uzbekistan!

Choose Uzbekistan tour package suitable to you by clicking on the corresponding tab (5 or 8 days) upon scrolling down.
