Following above is our basic program of the ascent. It's based on long-term experience and a record of successful ascents to the summit of Lenin Peak. By all means you are free to follow your own schedule based on your own understanding of the correct acclimatization for you, however the above is what we recommend.

For persons who would like to visit our Yurt camps just for spending the time according to their preferences and without some mountaineering intention then no problem: being alone, or with your friends, or with your sweetheart, or with your family even including your children - you are welcome! You also have unique chance to spend your vacations under foot of Lenin Peak, our special offer for you: "Vacation in the Pamirs" program!

Attention!

Special offer for those wanting to join a group!

Dear friends! Many of you ask us the same question: is it possible to join any combined group with a fixed date? Because, understandably, many of you would rather not climb the Lenin Peak alone! Having someone with you sharing your happiness at the views witnessed from such unbelievable heights is something most people will agree is an excellent addition to a successful summit, something we've duly noted!
