

Pamirs' Summits
Mountain Trekking and Mountaineering in the Lenin Peak Area

Country of destination: Kyrgyzstan, Pamir Mountains
Tour itinerary, cities: Osh - Base camp of Lenin Peak - Osh

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES 2020:

Group №1. 28.06.2020

Group №2. 12.07.2020

Group №3. 26.07.2020

Group №4. 09.08.2020

In this adventure tour mountain-lovers can test their abilities at high altitudes of Pamir Mountains. After receiving detailed instructions and a training course from experienced guides the participants can ascend three summits - Petrovsky (4,700 m), Yukhin (5,130 m) and Razdelnaya (6,148 m) Peaks - in the strikingly beautiful alpine area of the Pamirs using a full range of mountain equipment. All this makes the tour's program quite unique.

Our mountain climbing guides will teach you the technique of climbing glaciers and snow-covered slopes, the rules of crossing crevasses, the basic skills of working in a rope team, the fundamentals of using professional mountain gear and the principles of belaying. You will become properly acclimatized and receive professional advices from our mountain guides about the climbing equipment and outfit requirements. As an individual program, you will have a most interesting mountain trek, which will include an ascent of Mount Razdelnaya (6,148 m) - one of the points on the classical climbing route to Lenin Peak.

This group mountain tour may also be good for those who want to familiarize themselves with the area to test the abilities of their organism at high altitudes before climbing Lenin Peak (7,134 m) on the following season, as a successful attempt on Razdelnaya Peak means you are quite ready to bid for the seven-thousander. Besides, you will go through all the preliminary stages professionals do when they prepare for the ascent of Lenin Peak, while this tour will allow you to fully understand what high mountains and high-altitude mountaineering are in reality and to get trained for ascending the seven-thousander.

We wish you a successful mountain trip and good weather!
