Group №2. 08.08 - 16.08.2020

This trekking trip goes to the foot of Aksu peak (5365m). This route is often called trekking in 'Asian Patagonia'. You will pass through the infinite number of unique treks, which will take you to the genuine wilderness of the region.

The Pamir-Alay region possesses an amazing nature:

- bright valleys and mountain foothills give place to rigorous colours of rocks, snow and glaciers;
- crystal-clear air is saturated with fragrance of thick juniper forests;
- boisterous capricious rivers enliven the surrounding majestic beauty.

The culmination of the trip is a view to the grand 1500 m high rocky wall which comes to the Aksu peak.

During the trekking tourists will carry only personal backpacks with essentials, and all the rest of the equipment is carried on pack transport. For overnight stays there will be installed comfortable camps and for dinner the cook will prepare hot and tasty dishes served as in restaurant.
