Breakfast at the hotel and we embark on a city tour, visiting Pobeda (Victory) Square, Duboviy (Oak) Park, Central Ala-Too Square, Fine Arts Museum and National Philharmonic. Observe some of the finest examples of Soviet architecture.

After lunch at a local restaurant, visit the busy and colorful Asian Bazaar where you can purchase tapestry, fabrics and local produce. Drive out of the city to visit Ala-Archa Gorge (45 km), a Natural Park located on a spur of the Tien-Shan Mountain range. Embark on a short hiking tour to see panoramic views of the gorge. Dinner at local restaurant. Check-in hotel for the night.

Day11:Bishkek-Issyk-Kul

After breakfast, depart for Issyk-Kul Lake, the second largest alpine lake in the world after Lake Titicaca in South America. Measuring 182-km long by 58-km wide, the lake appeared as a result of volcanic activity. Issyk-Kul means "warm lake" and refers to the fact that it never freezes, despite its high elevation. With diverse flora and fauna, Issyk-Kul Lake and the surrounding environments are rightly considered to be one of Central Asia's most remarkable locations. En-route, on the outskirts of Tokmok town we visit the archaeological center Burana Tower (11th c. minaret). The Burana Tower is a minaret built in the 11th century on the ruins of the ancient city Balasagun. It is 24 meters in height. Explore ruins of that important trading point at the Great Silk Road and also watch a collection of Balbals (stone warriors) and Turkic ancient tombs. We continue our way and drive to Issyk-Kul through villages and little towns, notably Kemin, Balykchy, Tamchy, Sary-Oy, Kara-Oy. Check-in to hotel on arrival to Cholpon-Ata at Issyk-Kullake. The rest of the day is free time for you to explore the area and perhaps even a swim in the lake!

Day 12: Issyk Kul – Karakol – Yurt Camp in Bokonbaevo

After breakfast we visit the open-air Petroglyph's Museum (dating back to 800 B.C.) These petroglyphs were made thousands of years ago by local shamans. The images are primitive long horned bex, horses, camels and snow leopards. There are several thousands of petroglyphs here, providing a glimpse into the world of the Iron Age. Next we drive approximately 2 hours to Karakol city, formerly Przhevalsk. A Russian military outpost founded on 1 July 1869, Karakol grew in the 19th century after explorers came to map the peaks and valleys separating Kyrgyzstan from China. In the 1880s Karakol's population surged with an influx of Dungans, Chinese Muslims fleeing warfare in China. Lunch at local café en-route. On arrival, visit the Dungan Mosque that was built in a Chinese-style without using any single metal nail. Visit an old wooden Russian Orthodox Church. After lunch we depart for Jeti-Oguz Gorge ("seven bulls") that is famous for its red rocks formations. Enjoy the scenery and take plenty of photos of a Broken Heart Mountain. Next we drive Ethno Village and Yurt Camp "Almaluu" where you immerse into the Kyrgyz nomadic culture and overnight in yurt, made out of wooden carcasses and covered with felt. Enjoy the amazing starry sky!

Day 13: Bokonbaevo-Bishkek

Let's explore the stunning place called Skazka canyon in the morning. Canyon is one of the most picturesque in Kyrgyzstan, full of bizarre sandy forms, due to which the canyon got its sonorous name. Over the millennia of erosion, red sandstone has taken shape that resembles the outlines of fabulous monsters and ancient castles from ancient legends. Continue towards Bokonbaevo village where we will meet a local eagle-hunter. There are still some people in the village who continue this ancient way of hunting. They train eagles and hawks when they are still young and every winter, go with them to the mountains for hunting. Here you'll learn many interesting facts about this way of hunting and you'll be able to take photos while keeping the bird on your hand! Hit the road and return to Bishkek. Dinner in local restaurant. Return to hotel for the night.
