This Beijing historical tour will bring you to experience the charm of Chinese ancient history by visiting the most-visited highlights of Tiananmen Square, the Forbidden City, Summer Palace and the Temple of Heaven.

Detailed Itinerary:

Our guide will pick you up at 9:00AM at your hotel and transfer you to the first destination Tiananmen Square. As the largest public square in the world, Tiananmen Square can hold over one million people. This famous monument with its great historical significance is often considered as a national symbol in China. You will never miss out on this site.

The next scheduled destination will be the Forbidden City. The Forbidden City, also called Imperial Museum, was the imperial palace for emperors during the Ming and Qing dynasties. It is the best-preserved imperial palace in China and the largest ancient palatial structure in the world. You will appreciate its magnificence of royal architectures and imperial treasures when visiting the Forbidden City.

Then we will move to visit Summer Palace. The Summer Palace is the largest imperial park in China. Having a vast collection of lakes, gardens and palaces, Summer Palace attracts numerous tourists there for its natural beauty and numerous historical sites.

The last attraction for this tour will be Temple of Heaven. It was firstly built in the year of 1420 and has a long history now. Temple of Heaven is a complex of religious buildings situated in the southeastern part of central Beijing, which was visited by the Emperors of the Ming and Qing dynasties for annual ceremonies of prayer to Heaven for good harvest. Its grand size of architectures and profound cultural connotation make Temple of Heaven a must-see attraction in Beijing.

At last, our guide will transfer you back to your hotel. Thanks for having this short tour with us!
