

Mentougou and Chuandixia Village Day Tour

Valid Till : Dec 2018

Time: 08:00am-17:30pm

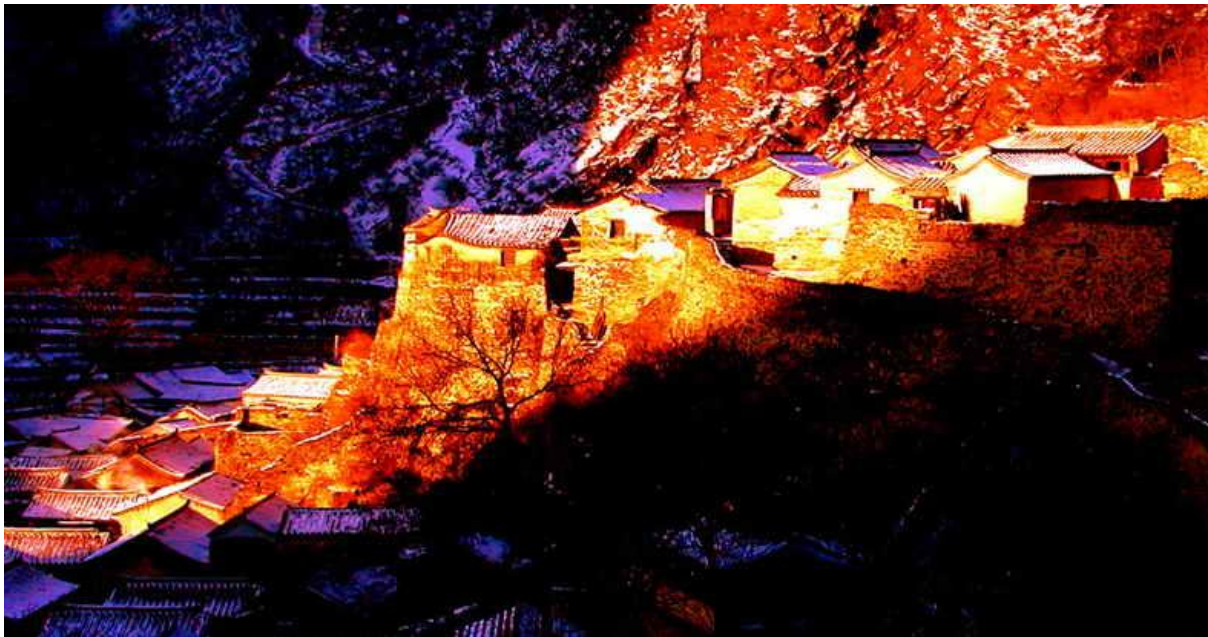

Duration:

10 hours

Come and take this tour to see the ancient villages in Mentougou District in rural Beijing. You will enjoy beautiful natural scenery, see ancient featured architecture, and experience the primitive rural life.

Highlights:

- Shuangshitou village, Cuandixia Village and Yanhecheng Village
- Charming sightseeing
- Private transfer during the whole tour

Detailed Itinerary:

Our guide will pick you up at your hotel and transfer you to visit the charming ancient villages at Mentougou District.

The first village to see will be Shuangshitou Village. Shuangshitou Village is situated 5 kilometers north of Zhaitang Town in Mentougou District in Beijing. The village is located in a village and is surrounded by hillside in the east and west. Shuangshitou means double stone in Chinese, and the Shuangshitou gets its name from the two huge stones in the village. This is an ancient village with more than 500 years' history. Besides the ancient and primitive appearance this village has, you will also be attracted by the profound stone culture it has. You will see stone mills, stone mortars, stone walls, stone houses, and stone carvings in the village.

Then we will move on to visit Chuandixia Village. The Chuandixia Village is a famous tourist village located in Zhaitang Town of Mentougou District in Beijing. This is an ancient village built in Ming and Qing dynasties and has a history more than 400 years. Chuandixia Village is especially famous for its ancient well-preserved architectures from the Ming and Qing dynasties. There are many ancient classic courtyards laid out appropriately. Also the natural beauty Chuandixia Village has is also very attractive. Chuandixia Village has become a hot destination for tourists for photography, hiking, and casual sightseeing.

Next our guide will bring you to see Yanhecheng Village. The Yanhecheng Village is an ancient village built in the year of 1578 during the Ming Dynasty. It is located in the deep valley between mountains. Used to be a fortress by the Yongding River, Yanhecheng Village was one of the stronghold between Beijing and its frontier. As the village is surrounded by mountain and river, it has great beautiful scenery. And the ancient houses preserved in the village though simple and primitive, they have exquisite carvings and decorations.

Afterwards, our guide will bring you transfer you back to downtown Beijing and drop you at your hotel.

Attractions & Activities: Shuangshitou Village, Cuandixia Village

Meals: Chinese Lunch

Price per person in USD
Group Size	Luxury Class Tour	Deluxe Class Tour	Tourist Class Tour
Peak Season
1 Person	-	USD 345	-
2 Persons	-	USD 191	-
3-5 Persons	-	USD 136	-
6-9 Persons	-	USD 103	-

INCLUDE

- Entrance Fees: To scenic spots as listed in the itinerary.
- Meals: lunch as specified in the itinerary.
- Private Transfers: Transfers during the sightseeing and hotel pick-up & drop-off
- Guide: English speaking tour guide

EXCLUDE

- International airfare or train tickets to enter or leave China.
- China entry visa fees.

