Day 02 Hangzhou

Detailed Itinerary:

Your great Hangzhou sightseeing will begin with the beautiful West Lake this morning. West Lake is the most famous tourist site in Hangzhou and is the must-see attraction. The West Lake is a garden-styled park for sightseeing and recreation with its spectacular natural beauty and numerous historical sites. There are many temples, pagodas, gardens and artificial islands within the West Lake. West Lake also has profound cultural background as it has influenced a lot of poets, painters and garden designers throughout the history. West Lake is most famous for its Ten Scenes. Then you will move on to Huagang Park for the fish viewing.

Next our guide will bring you to visit Linying Temple. The Lingyin Temple is situated on the west of West Lake. It is a famous ancient Buddhist temple in China. Simple yet magnificent, grandeur but with exquisite structure and delicate carvings, the Lingyin Temple is a masterpiece of ancient architecture. Its quaint architecture tranquil environment, historical sites and cultural relics preserved in Lingyin Temple are what to see there.

Then we will proceed to visit Meijiawu Tea Plantation. The Meijiawu Tea Plantation is one of the major production bases of Dragon Well Tea. You will experience the local profound tea culture and local life there.

At last we will head to Qinghefang Ancient Street, the only well persevered antique historic street in Hangzhou to experience the charm of ancient and tranquil Hangzhou.

Afterwards, our guide will transfer you back to the hotel for a good rest.
