Shanghai

Shanghai is China's most important financial center, a comprehensive industrial base and the leading commercial center in East China. It is an amazing mix of western and eastern cultures, boasting both traditional Chinese features and its modern lifestyle.

Zhujiajiao Water Town

In Zhujiajiao Town, traditional-style streets, markets and architecture of the Ming and Qing dynasties are well preserved, and certain traditional crafts have been restored. Aboard the black-awninged skiffs floating along the ancient canal and small rivers.

Evening cruise on Huangpu River

We will board the cruise from the Bund. The Bund is always the first thing to hit tourists when they visit Shanghai as it is regarded as Shanghai's magnificent landmark.. During the cruise, we will see Shanghai light up at night, enjoy an international buffet on Huangpu River.
