Day 01 Arrive in Xiamen

Detailed Itinerary:

Arrival at Xiamen, airport pickup. Visit South Putuo Temple, coach tour on Coast Road, take photo outside Xiamen International Convention Center. You will have free time for the beach for the rest of the day.

Nan Putuo Temple

Situated on 515 Siming South Road, The NanPutuo Temple faces the sea. It is the most famous temple in Xiamen. The vegetarian Cuisine in Nanputuo Temple is something you can try for dinner tonight. Famous dishes include taro paste with dried seaweed, luohan (a kind of fruit used in Chinese medicine), corn with pine nuts, tempeh stuffed in bamboo, and roasted, marinated flowers.

Coast Road: Coast Road otherwise known as Huandao Road in Chinese. Is about as close to the ocean-front as you can get and the view is splendid.

Waterfront Plank: This Waterfront Plank is 6 kilometers long and stretches from Hulishan Fort, Pearl Bay Garden, Calligraphy Square, Zeng Cuo An Beach, Musician Square, Baishi Fort relics, Sun Bay Beach and Huangcuo Rock Beach.

This waterfront plank is divided into two parts. The waterfront bridge is built on shoreline cliffs, and the trail is built on beach. Enjoy your time here. You can rent a bike and ride on trails specially designed for you only!

Zeng Cuo An Beach: Zeng Cuo An area has attracted more and more people to visit. We recommend Red Armadillo for you to spend the rest time of the night on Zeng Cuo An beach. It serves the best Mexican food in Xiamen. The fusion of American chunky meats plus Mexican chili makes a wonderful combination for the Xiamen's latest beach cultured food this year.
