

Guangzhou City Overview One Day Coach Tour

Tour Description:

Guangzhou attracts more than 100 million visitors each year. Historically, it was a major terminus of the maritime Silk Road and continues to serve as a major seaport and other transportation hubs. Guangzhou is currently the 3rd largest city in China. This tour will take you to see Huacheng Square, Canton Tower, Guangdong Province Museum, Guangzhou Opera House, Zhujiang Inpub International Beer Museum, and Beijing Road Pedestrian Street. You have options for joining the tour with or without a guide.

Tour Itinerary:

Pickup commences from your hotel lobby between 8:30am to 9am to visit must-see attractions in Guangzhou including Huangcheng Square and Guangdong Province Museum. Next, take photos outside of Guangzhou Opera House and Guangzhou Tower. Later, visit Zhujiang Inpub International Beer Museum and Beijing Road Pedestrian Street. You have options for joining the tour with or without a guide.

Huacheng Square: Also known as Flower City Square, Huacheng Square is located in the CBD of Zhujiang New Town, which is a renowned sightseeing and shopping destination in Guangzhou. Strolling around Huacheng Square to appreciate its green surroundings and a magnificent view of the Canton Tower across the Pearl River.

Canton Tower: A new landmark of Guangzhou city. It is the tallest TV tower in the world which stands 1,969 feet (600 meters) in height where you could get a panoramic view of the spectacular city landscape at the observation deck on top of the tower.

Guangdong Province Museum: A comprehensive museum with a collection of over 160,000 pieces of exhibits that was opened to the public on October 1st, 1959. In 2003, the People's Government of Guangdong Province decided to build a new site for Guangdong Museum in Zhujiang New Town, Guangzhou. On May 18th, 2010, the brand-new Guangdong Museum was opened for business.

Guangzhou Opera House: The biggest performing center in southern China and is one of the three biggest theaters in the nation. It was designed by famous late Iraqi architect, Zaha Hadid.

Zhujiang Inpub International Beer Museum: The magnificent beer museum stands out against the dazzling Pearl River with lush green trees all around. You will gasp at its glitzy appearance like a beer barrel guarded by two colorful glass buildings. It is also known as Pearl River-Inbev international beer museum.

Beijing Road Pedestrian Street: A must-see place when visiting Guangzhou. Even if you do not really come here to shop, the place is still very enjoyable. You could walk along the streets, browse all kinds of stores available there, or simply soak up the atmosphere.

Tour ends in Beijing Road Pedestrian Street at 5pm. Free time to explore the night. You will take taxi or MTR back to your hotel by yourself.
