

Architecture is a crystal in Milan

A good combination between tradition and innovation: a local recipe such as “Saffron risotto”, which is no doubt one of Milan’s most famous dishes, and the brand-new “Porta Nuova district”, where you will discover the new skyline of the metropolitan city: skyscrapers and stunning infrastructures characterized by the lightness of glass and steel

Meeting with a licensed tourist guide in Milan. Thanks to a guided visit you will stroll about the skyscrapers which are re-outlining Milan skyline. Proceeding from Pirellone to the new-born futuristic Porta Nuova-Isola-Garibaldi complex, you will be shown the soft shapes of the new seat of Regione Lombardia, planned by Pei Cobb Freed & Partners; the roof gardens of Bosco Verticale by Stefano Boeri, the 2014 prizewinner as the finest skyscraper in the world; the pointed spire of the Unicredit Complex by Cesar Pelli, which secludes the innovative and lively square dedicated to Gae Aulenti.

The city of the future rises among old streets and railing houses, connecting the past to the future, thanks to a first-class architecture. Lunch at a Milan typical restaurant with a local menu is included, and you will taste “risotto alla milanese”, with saffron.
