Alacahöyük: Our guide takes us to the Alacahöyük region, which is a wonder of nature and where we will admire the history. Alacahöyük It is near the village of Horamözü in the Alaca district of Çorum province. It is one of the great ancient mounds of historical importance. Length 310, width 277, height 20 meters. It is on the east-west road which was used as a way of migration and invasion from the first ages until recently. Alacahöyük is a magnificent artifact, a collection of cities, showing the history of history starting from thousands of years ago and showing how many civilizations have been born and sunk in this environment. According to archaeologists' studies in Alacahöyük and 100-year-old excavations, the mound yielded traces of four cultural ages. Each age is divided into building levels starting from the foundation to the top of the mound. Each floor of that age, palace, temple, square, castle walls and city houses, such as the works have occurred. Our guide, our esteemed guests in the region after the history of the free time in the region. The end of tour we move to return. Arrival to Ankara and leaving you to your hotel.
