Ephesus : We visiting Ephesus - one of the best-preserved classical cities in the eastern Mediterranean and a great example of Roman architecture. When you walk on marble street of Ephesus like by Cleopatra and Mark Antony, feel privilege your self.

Within Ephesus you will be seeing Harbour Street, the Marble Street, Ephesus Grand Theater which is capacity seating for 25,000 persons, the gate of Mihridates and Mazues, Commercial Agora, latrina, the Scolastica Baths, , the Hercules gate, the famous Celsus Library, Trajan Fountain, Curetes Street, Polio Fountain, Memnius Monument, the Temple of Domitian, Temple of Hadrian, the Prytaneion, the State Agora and Odeon. visit the Temple of Artemis, one of the seven wonders of ancient world. Take a lunch in a local restaurant after continue to Didyma Apollon Temple.

Didyma ; Nowadays, Didyma is a tourism center with golden sand beach. The Temple of Artemis has remained as a religious center since it was founded, it has never been a settlement where the people lived. Didyma is Originally an ancient Greek sanctuary. Didyma is referring to Apollo and Artemis and was connected to Miletus by a sacred road. The sacred road was 20 km and marble covering. The original Didyma temple was destroyed and looted by Persian King Darius 1 of Persia in 494 BC. Afterwards the Milesians build again a new Hellenistic temple in 313 BC. Modern experts believe, Apollon temple is enormous and impressive structure is the third largest temple of the of the Hellenistic period

Lunch break in a local restaurant . After continue to Miletus 20 km.

Miletos ; The world's largest maritime war in 434 BC was between the Persians and the Milesians in the vicinity of the island of Lade near the city of Miletos. 370 Navy ships participated in the war and the Persian Navy won the war and the Persians burned and plundered the city.

Our tour then moves onto the ruins of Miletos, Here you can explore the ancient theater, built around the 4th century BC, 15,000 capacity. You will visit Miletos Museum , Serapis Temple and the well-preserved Bath of Faustina - named after the wife of Marcus Aurelius - who ordered its construction. There is a 20 Km sacred road between the Temple of Serapis in Miletus and the Temple of Apollo in Didim. The people of Miletos would go to the temple of Apollo in the sacred way during antiquity period. Today a small part of the sacred road is unearthed. Visit Miletos Museum because the main collection of artefacts resides in Miletos museum.

Priene was an ancient port city. But now it is located on the slopes of Mykale Mountain and 16 km from the sea. Priene is the world's first planned city with clean water canals and waterways beneath its marble-covered streets with sequential houses on either side of the planned avenue and side streets. This 2,500-year-old Ionian city was among the first to be planned with a grid system of streets. You see the Temple of Athena, the roman baths, the well preserved Hellenistic Theatre, the gymnasium and the Temples of Asclepius, Isis, Serapis and Anubis.

The view of the vast plain and the mountains in the shadow of the Priene Athena Polias Temple columns overlooking the Soke plain and the Meander river is an incredible joy.

There are many works of art and architecture belonging to the ancient Greek period. Alexander the Great lived in this city for a while. The ancient theater in Priene is one of the most beautiful examples of the ancient Greek period. Athena Polias Temple was built by Alexander the Great as a gift to the city.
