Day 2 – Bucharest - Veliko Tarnovo

Breakfast at Hotel. Today morning we will proceed on a Guided Panoramic City Tour of Bucharest. A booming city with many large infrastructure projects changing the old face of the city. Once known as "The Little Paris," Bucharest has changed a lot lately, and today it has become a very interesting mix of old and new that has little to do with its initial reputation. Finding a 300 year old church, a steel-and-glass office building and Communist-era apartment blocks next to one another is a common sighting. This city offers some excellent attractions, and has, in recent years, cultivated a sophisticated, trendy, and modern sensibility that many have come to expect from a European capital. Later we head over to Veliko Tarnovo, the once temporary capital of the country. A place filled with rich historical background. It hosted two major events namely the First Constituent Assembly in 1879, where the Tarnovo Constitution was then adopted and The First Grand National Assembly, electing Prince Alexander I of Battenberg (1857-1893) for the Bulgarian ruler. In architectural terms, the appearance of the old part of the town takes the visitors in the past. Walking along Gurko street or Samovodskata Charshia (the crafts streets), the town guests have the possibility to see houses built over 200 years ago, as well as to sense a completely different atmosphere. The market street is a kind of an ethnographic complex with crafts workshops, souvenir shops and galleries. Spring near the the Palace of Parliament in Bucharest . Overnight at Hotel

Its duplicate, constructed in scale 1:1, which presents the architecture, the archaeological materials and the wall-paintings of the Kazanlak Tomb, is situated next to it. Then we will travel to Plovdiv, the second largest city in Bulgaria, situated on the Maritsa River. Its unique location on these ancient crossroads has stimulated strong cultural and political influences from East and West civilizations, and yet maintained its unique cultural identity. It boasts wide offerings for you with many parks and gardens, museums, archaeological monuments and the most remarkable sight of the town, the Ancient Theater which often hosts open air performances.
