

Fun rides in Hong Kong

Tour Description:

Try 4 kinds of rides frequently used by local Hong Kong people: Double-decker "Ding-Ding" Tram, which has served the city since the 1900s; Peak Tram ride to enjoy the sparkling view of skyscrapers and Victoria Harbour; Open Top Bus ride to explore many heritage sites of Hong Kong with a 540-degree panoramic view; DukLing Junk Ride to enjoy the sunset view. Walking tours are inclusive of Mid-Level Escalator from Des Voeux Road to Conduit Road, and Tsim Sha Tsui.

Tour Itinerary:

Tour departs every day.

Highlight:

DING DING TRAM

These double-decker trams have been travelling through Hong Kong's busiest streets since 1904s and continue to be an affordable and leisure way to get around. Neighborhoods that might pass through on your journey include some of Hong Kong's most colorful suburbs, such as Western district, Wan Chai, Happy Valley, Causeway Bay and North Point.

PEAK TRAM

Operated for over 125 years, there's nothing in the world like riding the 373 meters long Peak Tram to visit the Victoria Peak. Many skyscrapers buildings you passed by look like they leaning at a 45 degree angle!

OPEN TOP BUS RIDE

You will see some of the best attractions and landmarks in downtown Hong Kong with a 540-degree panoramic view on this double decker.

MID-LEVEL ESCALATORS

Serving as a method of transporting, it links Des Voeux Road in Central with Conduit Road in the Mid-levels. It cost HKD240 million to build. The entire system covers over 800 metres in distance and it is the longest outdoor covered escalator system in the world)

DUKLING JUNK RIDE

Dukling is not only a classic Chinese sailing junk but also one of the top ten tourist attractions in Hong Kong. Standing on the deck, imagine how Victoria Harbour was crossed and crowded by the classic Chinese sailing junks 150 years ago.

TSIM SHA TSUI

Tsim Sha Tsui is one of the main shopping areas in Hong Kong. It is a giant world bazaar, where Hong Kong's glittering harbour is met by an alternate sea of stalls, shops, markets and malls. Tour ends in Tsim Sha Tsui around 18:00p.m.
