- HIGHLIGHTS -

TEMPLE OF A-MA (UNESCO HERITAGE)

The temple was built 400 years ago in homage to a girl who saved A seamen's life. The temple is one of the most famous Taoist temples. Macau was later named by the Portugese settlers in mid-16th Century. This temple has become a World Heritage in 2005.

RUINS OF ST. PAUL'S

In the heart of the old city stands the great carved stone facade of St. Paul's, which, with the grand staircase, are all that remain of the first church and Colleague of the Jesuits in China. Designed by an Italian Jesuit, the church was built in the early 17th century. In 1835 a fire destroyed all but the facade.

NA TCHA TEMPLE (UNESCO HERITAGE)

This Chinese traditional styled temple known as Na Tcha Temple was built for worshipping Na Tcha (a mythical character). The temple was enlisted as a World Heritage in 2005. The temple is located just behind the Ruins of St. Pauls.

SECTION OF THE OLD CITY WALLS (UNESCO HERITAGE)

This surviving segment of City Wall was built in 1569. It is a remnant of an early Portuguese tradition of constructing defensive walls around their port settlements. It was enlisted as a World Heritage in 2005.

MOUNT FORTRESS (UNESCO HERITAGE)

The fortress was Macau's principal military defense structure which was built in conjunction with the Jesuits from 1617 to 1626. The fortress covers an area of 10,000 square metres and is in the shape of a trapezoid. It has become a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005.

MACAU TOWER (Admission on own expenses)

Soar to a breathtaking 223 meters above the ground. Macau Tower offers you a different vision of the entire city. Gaze out over to Cotai Strip, look for Macau's landmarks and historical sites all in one spot.

It offers the best view of Macau and has been awarded "Best Theme Attraction in Asia Pacific" for 2005 & 2006 by TTG Asia – Macau Tower. For those with fear of heights, there are also souvenirs shops, Mocha clubs (machine based casino gaming) and coffee shops located at the ground floor.
