Day 01 Arrive in Hong Kong

Detailed Itinerary: You will be transferred from the airport to the hotel. You will be free to explore Hong Kong tonight by yourself. Your hotel is located within 1 minute walking distance from Exit C2 of the Price Edward MTR station. Take MTR to Tsim Sha Tsui where you will spend the rest of your night.

Free time for the rest of the day.

TSIM SHA TSUI

Tsim Sha Tsui is one of the main shopping areas in Hong Kong. It is a giant world bazaar, where Hong Kong's glittering harbour is met by an alternate sea of stalls, shops, markets and malls. Tour ends in Tsim Sha Tsui around 7:00p.m.

OLD CLOCK TOWER

The Clock Tower was part of former Kowloon Station of Kowloon-Canton Railway since 1915. The main terminus building was demolished in 1978 leaving only the clock tower. It is a landmark from the Age of Steam and has been listed as a declared monument in Hong Kong since 1990.

AVENUE OF STARS

The Hollywood style Avenue of Stars features plaques for honoured movie celebrities on the walk of fame. It also features milestones and sculptures about Hong Kong film industry, along with kiosks selling souvenirs.

Avenue of Stars has been closed from Oct 8th 2015 onwards for repair and improvement works. It will be re-opened again in 2017.

TEMPLE STREET

Known as Men's Street. It is a street located in the areas of Jordan and Yau Ma Tei in Kowloon. Popular with tourists and locals, The market starts at 2 p.m. in the afternoon, but is lively at dusk daily. There are carts bulging with goods from clothing to mobile phones and watches. Stalls have items mainly for men, jeans, t-shirts, pants, lighters, shoes, condoms and men's accessories. Like in other night markets in South East Asia, prices can always be negotiated by bargaining.

TUNG CHOI STREET

Known as Ladies' Market or Ladies' Street. It is a street situated between Boundary Street and Dundas Street in Mong Kok, Kowloon. It is one of the most well-known street markets in Hong Kong, where various kinds of products are available for cheap prices (not just for women, as its name suggests).

Day 05 Depart from Hong Kong

Detailed Itinerary: You have free time for your own leisure until you are transferred to the airport by shuttle bus for your flight home.

If your flight leaves in the late afternoon or evening, we recommend you take a visit to:

HONG KONG MUSEUM OF HISTORY

The museum tells the "Hong Kong Story" and covers the natural environment, folk culture (ethnography) and historic development starting with the Devonian period, 400 million years ago. The periods covered include the Opium Wars, Japanese occupation and the growth of the modern metropolis. The exhibit follows Hong Kong through to 1997 when Hong Kong was reunited with China.

POTTINGER STREET

Pottinger Street, known as the Stone Slabs Street by the locals. The street was named after Henry Pottinger, the first Governor of Hong Kong in 1858. There are many small local shops placed aside the stone steps. It is also a place of selling nostalgia. Taiwan Director Ang Lee's award winning "Lust, Caution" was partly filmed at here)

MID-LEVEL ESCALATORS

Serving as a method of transporting, it links Des Voeux Road in Central with Conduit Road in the Mid-levels. It cost HKD240 million to build. The entire system covers over 800 metres in distance and it is the longest outdoor covered escalator system in the world

ST ANDREW'S CHURCH

It is a church of the Anglican and is the oldest English speaking Protestant church in Kowloon. While St Andrew's commenced its life as a church for the expatriate community, it is now an international church with 90% of those attending considering Hong Kong as their home.

Sunday services are currently held at 8:30am, 9:45am, 11:30am and 5:00pm in English, and at 2:00pm in Mandarin (Putonghua). The Lord's Supper (Holy Communion) is administered at the 8:30am service every Sunday.

The church was designed by the architects Leigh & Orange in the Victorian Gothic style. It is built of red brick and granite, laid on rammed earth foundations. The stained glass in the altar and baptismal windows is the original glass, dating from 1906, made by William Morris & Co. of Westminster, London.

Other heritage buildings in the church compound include the two-storey Old Vicarage built in 1909, the Amahs' Quarters and Verger's Cottage, built at around the same period. All three buildings are constructed in red brick with granite detailing.
