SIGHTSEEINGS:

Wat Visoun: the 16th century temple served as a small museum for religious artifacts.

Wat Aham: the early 19th century temple, whose two guardian figures at the foot of the steps which represent two characters from the Ramayana - Hanuman, the Monkey God and a fierce Yaksha.

Wat Xiengthong: the 16th century temple which, more than any temples in Luang Prabang, epitomizes all the elegance and grace of Luang Prabang architecture.

Night Bazaar Street: where you can find the lovely collection and handmade textile by local and hill tribe people surrounding Luang Prabang

Pak Ou Cave: in the side of a lime stone cliff and opposite of the mouth of the Mekong and Ou rivers. The sanctuaries at Pak Ou consist of two large caves, both repositories for thousands of Buddha images, which range from mere centimeter to two meters in height.

Ban Muangkeo: a well-known village for Lao traditional rice whisky, namely Laoh-Khao to be distilled.

National Museum: the former Royal Palace which houses the collection of valuables including the famous Prabang Buddha statue, gifts received from foreign dignitaries.

KuangSi Waterfall: is the biggest in the Luang Prabang area with three tiers leading to a 50-metre drop into spectacular azure pools before flowing downstream.

Talad Phousy: placed each day includes a track record of focusing on the particular purchase regarding fresh fruit expanded and also created in almost all communities.

Ban Na Oune: a small village of a hill-tribe group “Hmong”, probably the best-known minority group in Laos.

Ban Tha Pane: a village of Khmu minority group
