The excursion will take about one and a half hour on the road. During your visit, you will see the villagers doing their daily chore like rice pounding and winnowing, basket and mat weaving, bamboo carving, etc. You will be brought into the most unique and important structure, the “Baruk” or the head house, Which situated in the middle of the longhouse. The local once used this as a fort to protect the whole village from being attack. Inside the “Baruk”, you will be able to view human skulls hanging around the fire place in the middle and also their sacred war drum. After that transfer to the Hot Spring, there are few spots where the hot spring water seep out from the stream bed and flow together with the stream water. In Order to make some hot Spring SPA in the jungle, the workers are cooling the hot spring water with sands and rocks from the stream. At this point, we could only play with the cooling stream water. Lunch at local restaurant. Requirement for the trip: Personal Items, Insect repellent, Swim wear, Sun lotion.
