

Half Day Putrajaya & Farm In The City

Putrajaya, Malaysia's federal administrative centre, is an intelligent city that's thoughtfully built around many green spaces. Located midway between the city centre and Kuala Lumpur International Airport, there is much here for you to explore such as majestic government offices and residences.

Farm In The City is a new Malaysian village themed petting zoo in Taman Equine, Seri Kembangan, between Kuala Lumpur and Putrajaya. Here visitors can pet cute and cuddly animals within enclosures that are designed to mimic natural habitats. More than 100 species of exotic and rare species are on display behind glass walls or in open compounds - there are no steel barred cages for the creatures living here.
