( Validity : 01 April 2020 – 31 March 2021 )

Tour Code : MYY2008

Depart Time : 7:30 am

Meet at Hotel lobby, then transfer to Marina Bay Jetty. Upon arrival at the jetty, your dive boat will bring you to your first dive spot within radius of Miri-Sibuti Coral Reefs National Park. After a mandatory safety briefing, the bubbly action begins. Your Dive Master will guide you through-out your first dive – keeping a keen eye on underwater critters and of course, your safety.

There will be a surface interval between your first and second dive, in which you'll have plenty of time to chill-out on the upper-deck. Soak in the scenic splendors.

Your dive-day-out continues as you proceed to the next diving point. Do not hesitate to tell your Dive Master what you look forward to seeing, he will try his best to grant your wishes. But keep in mind, no guarantees okay !

All the fascinating sights must've worked up an appetite !
