DAY 01 SINGAPORE / KUCHING - SANTUBONG WILDLIFE RIVER CRUISE

Depart by scheduled flight for Kuching, the capital city of Sarawak. Meet upon arrival and transfer to your choice of hotels. Late this afternoon, embark on an exciting Santubong Wildlife Cruise which takes you around the rivers of the Santubong Peninsular, offering you the chance of seeing some of Sarawak's fascinating wildlife. The cruise criss-crosses the mouth of the Santubong River where the rare Irrawaddy dolphins are often seen swimming and diving in the estuary. Your boat then cruises along the mangrove river banks in search of the big nose Proboscis monkeys, often seen in the treetops at the water edge settling down for the night. As dusk arrives, we watch the fire-flies moving amongst the branches of the mangroves and we might see crocodiles which can be easily spotted by their brightly eyes when shone upon by powerful torchlights. (Note : Wildlife sightings cannot be guaranteed, however our local tour operator do enjoy a high success rate and the tour do not operate during rainy weather and also for late arrival, Santubong Wildlife Cruise will be conducted on the 3rd day of the tour.)

DAY 02 KUCHING - BAKO NATIONAL PARK DAY TOUR (B, L)

After breakfast, pick up from hotel at 0830 hours, take a 45 minutes drive to Bako Fishing Village and continue by boat for a 30 minutes cruise to Bako National Park. The journey takes you past beautiful nipah palms, coconut plantations and mangrove swamps. A unique feature of Bako is the way nature has delightfully combines spectacular landscape of steep coastline cliffs, weather-eroded rock formations and wave-beaten sea stacks with abundant flora and fauna, wildlife and a thriving mangrove swamp. It is rare place that should please even the most demanding photographer or wildlife and nature enthusiast. It is also home to numerous species of birds, snakes and animals such as the proboscis monkeys, long tailed macaques, wild boars, sambar deers and monitor lizards. Sixteen well-demarcated paths within the park and be followed without difficulty or fear of getting lost. (Note : In the event of bad weather or rough sea, Bako National Park Day Tour will be substitute to :-

KUCHING CITY TOUR + FAIRY & WIND CAVE NATURE RESERVE (B, L)

After breakfast, commence on a city tour which includes Kuching's Chinatown, the Cat Statue, pass by the colourful Tua Pek Kong Temple, the heritage buildings of forts, palace and colonial builds of the the White Rajah era. Drive pass the golden-domed City Mosque, to visit the Sarawak Museum, a Victorian-era building built in 1891 by the second Rajah Brooke. Have a brief stop for you to browse through the souvenir shops along the waterfront. Then, on to visit the Cat Museum, founded in 1993, it houses 2000 exhibits, artifacts, statues about cates from all over the world. Thereafter lunch at a local restaurant before transfer to visit the Fairy & Wind Cae Nature Reserve. An underground world of wonder formed some 100-150 million years age, these caves are famed for the stalactites and stalagmites that resemble human and animal shapes and also homes to thousands of bats and swiftlets.

DAY 03 KUCHING (B)

Free day for you to explore the main streets of Kuching city for your shopping of local products and handicrafts and you can view historical buildings built during the White Rajah era or visit the world famous Sarawak Museum.

DAY 04 KUCHING / SINGAPORE (B)

Bid farewell to Sarawak as you will be transferred to the airport for your flight back to Singapore.
