Botanical Garden – Pamplemousses.

The tours start with a visit of the world famous Pamplemousses Garden, known for its important collection of indigenous and exotic plants such as the giant water lilies and the Talipot, whose flowers, according to legend, bloom once every hundred years before dying. An old French mansion “Chateau de Mont Plaisir” together with an old sugar mill recall the rich historical past of the beautiful island.

Excursion will continue by the visit of Port Louis-The capital of Mauritius

The Government House

The Government House, the most important building in the political life of Mauritius, was built by Mahé de Labourdonnais in 1740. It is a pretty colonial masonry. In the courtyard there is a statue of Queen Victoria.

China Town

You're in a small China in Mauritius. There are small shops and boutiques where you can buy traditional medicines and where you can take a Chinese meal in one of many restaurants.

Fort Adelaide

Since Fort Adelaide can enjoy a fantastic panoramic view over the capital. The fort was built by the English in 1840. Today it often produces concerts and outdoor festivities.

Marie Reine de la Paix

Marie Reine de la Paix is a center of pilgrimage Mauritius. This outdoor sanctuary offers a magnificent view of Port Louis and the mountains of Signals.

Caudan Waterfront

Since 1998 Caudan Waterfront is another popular destination in Port Louis. In the entertainment center there are numerous shops and boutiques, restaurants, a five-star hotel and casino. Thus Caudan Waterfront invites visitors to stroll, to go shopping and have fun. In the harbor front there are the beautiful yachts.
