Detailed Program

Day 1: Arrival Yangon (D)

Arrive at Yangon international airport and be welcomed by your personal tour guide. Then, enjoy the sunset at Shwedagon Pagoda (its golden stupa covered with 60 tons of pure gold), famous worldwide – its golden stupa is the ‘Heart’ of Buddhism Myanmar. The Pagoda is believed to be 2,500 years old and the central stupa is surrounded by dozens of intricately decorated buildings and statues. There are always many Myanmar People praying and making offerings at Shwedagon, and it’s fascinating place to spend time watching the world go by. Transfer to the hotel for check in. Dinner at local restaurant. Overnight at hotel in Yangon.

Day 02: Yangon – Bago – Kyaikhtiyo (Golden Rock) (B, L, D)

After early breakfast at hotel, drive to Golden Rock, 185 km from Yangon via Bago. On the way, visit to Kyaikpun the four Buddha images sittings in back - to - back position. Continue to 55 m Long & 16 m high reclining Shwethalyaung (a huge reclining Buddha image). Lunch at local restaurant. After that, continues to Golden Rock .Upon arrival at Kin Pun ‘base camp’, a steep and rough 11-km dirt road leads to the upper staging point. From there to “Yahae Hill”, open trucks are used for hilly track up. At the Yathae Hill, one has to trek for about one hour up hill. It can also be reached by Sedan Charis which are easily available. On arrival, watch the beauty of a sunset at this important pilgrimage site. Transfer to hotel for check-in, dinner at hotel and overnight stay at hotel in Yangon.

Day 03: Kyaikhtiyo (Golden Rock) – Bago – Yangon (B, L, D)

After breakfast at hotel, enjoy the sunrise at Golden Rock and return back to Yangon. Before proceed to Yangon, excursion to and ancient capital of Mon Kingdom, Bago (the Hansawaddy Dynasty).Sightseeing includes 376 ft high Shwemawdaw Pagoda (50 ft higher than the great Shwedagon). Then visit Bago market where Myanmar traditional cheroot industry is. Observe the Buddhism ways of living in Bago and environs. Lunch at local restaurant. Return back to Yangon. On the way, observe the World War Two Cemetery – 27,000 tombstones of allied soldiers who lost their lives in Myanmar during the World War II at Htaukkyant. The cemetery is peaceful and beautifully tended. Arrive Yangon, visit Kyauk Taw Gyi – this sitting Buddha image which is curved out from single marble stone. If time permits, we also visit to “White Elephants Camp” which is just a stone’s throw away from the airport. Dinner at local restaurant. Transfer to hotel for check –in again and overnight stay at hotel in Yangon.

Day 04: Yangon – Thanlyin – Yangon (B, L, D)

After breakfast at Hotel, transfer to Thanlyin(Syriam), once a trading port occupied by the Portuguese in early 17th Century. The 270 meter long bridge spanning the Bago River made possible the 45 minutes drive from Yangon. The old buildings still stand in the evidence of the days of Portuguese occupation. Kyaik Khauk Pagoda and Kyauktan Yele Pagoda in the creek are worth visiting. Visit Thanlyin which had been the base for the notorious Portuguese adventurer Philip De Brito between 1500s and early 1600s. He ruled over Thanlyin for about 13 years. Actually, he was officially a trade representative for Rakhine (Arakan), but he ran his own little kingdom in Thanlyin, siding with the Mon in their struggle against the Burmese. In the year 1599, he occupied Bago, but in 1613, the Bama King Alaungpaya besieged Thanlyin and impaled him and King Natshin Naung to death. King Alaungpaya destroyed Thanlyin completely in the year 1756. Today, nothing of this ancient city is to be seen. There are two tombs of Minister Padetha Raza and the great soldier-poet Natshin Naung, King of Ratus. In the afternoon, drive back to Yangon and take lunch at the restaurant. Return to hotel and take a rest for a while. Dinner at local restaurant. After all transfer to hotel and overnight stay at hotel in Yangon.

Day 05: Yangon International Departure (B)

Breakfast at the hotel, Leisure till the flight time. Transfer to Yangon International Airport for your departure flight to conclude this unique experience.
