DAY05 Queenstown – Dunedin / Taieri Gorge Train (B)

A coach from Queenstown connects with The Taieri Gorge Limited train via the Maniototo and Strath Taieri Plains. Taieri Gorge Railway can take you from Queenstown to Dunedin, on a special train'n'coach tour. It takes you on a journey through the rugged and spectacular Taieri River Gorge, across wrought iron viaducts and through tunnels carved by hand more than 100 years ago. With full commentary, photographic stops, comfortable heating in winter and on board refreshments the train offers year round, all-weather entertainment.

Dunedin's dramatic hills surround a long, natural harbour, which attracted Maori settlers to the site over four centuries ago. More recently the area was settled by whalers, gold miners and migrants from Scotland and China. Memorable for its historical architecture, Dunedin is one of the best preserved Victorian and Edwardian cities in the Southern Hemisphere. On the doorstep of the city, you can find incredible wildlife - the world's rarest penguins, a mainland albatross colony, fur seals and sea lions.

Hotel: Dunedin City Hotel or similar.

DAY06 Dunedin – Te Anau (B)

Your coach journey to Milton – high country farming area where then turn Southland (has experienced remarkable growth and development in recent years and boasts a range of world-class facilities, many initiatives of regional benefit and an expanding range of visitor attractions that feature some of the most distinctive landscapes in the country Farming, forestry and horticulture form the region's economic base, but Southland also has a diversity of manufacturing for export. It is one of the fastest growing tourist regions in New Zealand due to its unspoilt nature and wide recognition of it being a place to restore the soul) to Te Anau. The Eighth Wonder of the World - Fiordland was well known to Maori, who have many legends recounting its formation and naming. Demi-god Tute Rakihwhanoa is said to have carved the rugged landscape from formless rock, hewing out the steep sided valleys with his adzes. From the lakeside townships of Te Anau and Manapouri, you can experience Fiordland in the way that suits your travelling style. Adventurers can embark on kayaking tours of the lakes and fiords; hikers have access to a choice of well known walking challenges; scenery lovers can catch a scenic flight or enjoy lake and fiord cruises; divers can discover rare black corals growing just beneath the water's surface.

 Hotel: Luxmore Hotel or similar

DAY07 Te Anau – Milford Sound – Queenstown (B/L)
 Milford Sound is simply stunning. It is a natural wonder of world fame. In Maori legend, the fiords were created not by rivers of ice, but by Tu Te Rakī Whanoa, a godly figure who wielding a magical adze and uttering incantations. Milford Sound (Piopiotahi) is without doubt his finest sculpture. Whatever the fiord's mood - teeming with rain with sun glistening on deep water - it will inspire you. Nowhere else in Fiordland do the mountains stand as tall, out of the sea. In the foreground of the fiord stands the legendary Mitre Peak, a remarkable presence dominating the The Milford Road (between Te Anau and Milford) travels through some of the world's most alpine scenery. Our experienced drivers love sharing some of the breathtaking highlights and there is plenty of time for photo opportunities. The Milford Sound cruise is included with the Lobster Starter & International Buffet Lunch. After cruise you will be traveling back to Te Anau then return back to Queenstown. Arrive back to Queenstown is about 7.30pm.
