This morning you will be transferred to ferry terminal & connect the Ferry from Wellington to Picton. & board on coachtravel along the coast to Christchurch

Day 6: Christchurch to Fox Glacier

The TranzAlpine –Christchurch to Greymouth, rated one of the world's great scenic railway journeys! From your carriage you'll see the fields of the Canterbury Plains and farmland, followed by the spectacular gorges and river valleys of the Waimakariri River. Your train then climbs into the Southern Alps before descending through lush beech rain forest to the West Coast town of Greymouth – a great base for visits to Punakaiki and the always popular glaciers. South West New Zealand World Heritage Area huge rivers of ice, living remnants of the ice ages, carve a spectacular landscape from the snowfields of the Southern Alps to their terminal faces near sea level. Get up close and hear the glaciers creaking and cracking as they constantly grind down the valleys. Near Fox Glacier is Lake Matheson, formed some 14,000 years ago from a huge sheet of trapped ice.

Day 7: Fox Glacier to Queenstown

This morning you will continue your journey south along the West Coast before again crossing the Southern Alps over the Haast Pass and arriving in Queenstown

Day 8: Queenstown

Today is a free day for you to join some optional tours. Like LOTR Tours, Jet boat, white water rafting, The Earnslaw steamer cruises, etc.

Day 9: Queenstown – Milford Sound – Te Anau

Milford Sound is simply stunning. It is a natural wonder of world fame. In Maori legend, the fiords were created not by rivers of ice, but by Tu Te Raki Whanoa, a godly figure who came wielding a magical adze and uttering incantations. Milford Sound (Piopiotahi) is without doubt his finest sculpture. Whatever the fiord's mood - teeming with rain or with sun glistening on deep water - it will inspire you. Nowhere else in Fiordland do the mountains stand as tall, straight out of the sea. In the foreground of the fiord stands the legendary Mitre Peak, a remarkable presence dominating the skyline. Self drive – cruise only.

Day 10: Te Anau – Dunedin

This morning you will drive/coach to Dunedin in time to explore this 'Scottish' city or visit the wildlife on Otago Peninsula
