(3 days - 2 nights)

Validity: Till 31 Dec 2015

Day 01 Arica – Putre

Welcome at the airport. Tour starts with a visit to a farmers' market to experience the local atmosphere. Then, we will enter the Azapa Valley, with a view of La Tropicilla Geoglyphs and a visit to San Miguel de Azapa Archaeological Museum, where you may see 7,000 year-old Chinchorro mummies. We head towards Lluta Valley for a short hike to observe Candlestick Cactus. Lunch included. Visit to the pre-Inca fortress of Copaquilla and the Aymara village of Socoroma. Arrival in Putre. Dinner and overnight at Hotel Kukuli or Terrace Lodge.

Day 02 Surire Salt Lake

Breakfast in the hotel. Visit to the altiplanic villages of Ancuta and Guallatire, located over 4,000 meters above sea level, at the base of active Guallatire Volcano. Arrival to Chicaya and to Surire Salt Lake to admire amazing flamingoes and local fauna. Trip continues to the hot springs of Polloquere (4,270 meters above sea level) for picnic lunch and bathing. Return to Putre. Overnight.

Day 03 Lauca National Park – Arica

Breakfast in the hotel. Visit to Bofedal de las Cuevas and trekking to observe wild animals, such as vicuñas and vizcachas, and to become familiar with bofedales, basis of the ecosystem in these high plains. We will admire a large variety of birds, including Northern pitios, wild geese, Andean seagulls, pink flamingoes, the giant condor, and different species of ducks. Arrival at Chungara Lake (4,500 altitude) and Cotacotani Lagoons. Picnic lunch and hike in the village of Parinacota, with its distinctive 17th century church. Visit to Jurasi hot springs, where you may enjoy a refreshing bath. Return to Arica approx. at 6pm. End of our services.
