Jiufen: It is said that long time ago there were only nine families in Jiufen. Before the roads on land were built, all materials were transported via ships. Thus a habit was formed that nine pieces of same object were purchased at one time for reservation. Hence, the place was called Jiufen.

Shihfen Old Street: It does boast the unique attribute of serving as the only old street in Taiwan, which trains pass through on a daily basis. As they happily enjoy gourmet snacking, visitors can enjoy the sight of trains passing along the unfenced railway gates.

Friendly Garden: We can know farmer how to work if we do ourselves. There is no better way to understand the culture by experiencing it!

Taroki National Park: Taroko is famous for its spectacular mountains and marble canyons. Cliffs and canyons stretch along Liwu River. Four million years ago, the island of Taiwan was formed by the collision of plates. After millions of years of wind erosion, the marble rocks were exposed and cut by Liwu River, creating impressive grand canyons.

Eternal Spring Temple: Spring water adjacent by the Eternal Spring Shine flows all year round, and the Highway Bureau named it after "Changchun Falls." It is now scenic spot with special significance on the Central Cross-Island Highway.

Rei Suei Farm: Ruisui is also an ideal place to enjoy the leisurely pace of life on Taiwan's East Coast. In an area defined by a mere 135-km circumference, one can enjoy delicious dairy, coffee, tea, and other beverages, savor a spectrum of specialty cuisine, experience small town life. Ruisui presents the beauty of nature in its full charm, setting the perfect stage for a leisurely escape to Taiwan's East Coast.

(Kaohsiung International Citizen \ FX or similar)

(B / L / X)

Fo Guang Shan Buddha Memorial: The Buddha Museum was constructed with the intention of enshrining the Buddha's relic. The Sanskrit word "sarira" refers to the relics of a sage, which usually appear in crystalized form. The relic is perceived as a sign of the sage's spiritual cultivation over a lifetime.

The Pier-2 Art Center: It was once an abandoned and forgotten warehouse buried in history, However, with a group of persistent artist who injected waves of creativity and inspiration into the area, the Pier-2 area was released and re-born making the region a place where tourist and locals can come together to enjoy fine art. With the collision of an old area and new fine art, Pier-2 becomes an area of new vitality and liveliness.

Banana Wharf: This two-story canopied structure was built at Kaohsiung Harbor's Wharf No. 3 in 1963. The open-air design, unique among storage facilities at the port, enabled the natural ventilation required for storage of bananas. Modernization and declining banana exports eventually consigned the Banana Warehouse to the annals of history.

Night Market: Night Market serve snacks and provide entertainment and games for recreation, the garments/apparels and groceries are rarely seen in the market. In particular, the dozens of steak houses boom around the market offering beef steak at reasonable price or family-size package meal. No matter what you like to have, a variety of delicious food, specialties, cold drinks, ices and seafood here are offered for your choice.

DAY5: Kaohsiung/ Highway/ Nantou/ Nantou Rest Area/ Aboriginal product shop/ Sun Moon Lake National Scenic Area/ Take Boat on Lake/ Wenwu Temple/ Taiwanese tea center/ Taichung/ Night Market

(Taichung Royal Seasons \ CU or similar)

(B / L / X)

Sun Moon Lake: The Sun Moon Lake National Scenic Area is praised for its five major recreational systems. Divided by Lalu Island, the Sun Moon Lake scenic area got its name from the unique terrain that looked like a sun on one side and a crescent moon on the other. Crowned as one of the Eight Wonders of Taiwan. Sun Moon Lake is also the most famous source of hydroelectric power.

Wenwu Temple: The architecture of the temple has the palace style of northern China. It is a large and imposing structure. The bronze statue of a seated Confucius makes this also the only Confucius temple in Taiwan that contains an image of the sage.

DAY6: Taichung/ Miaoli/ Miaoli Hakka Museum/ Highway/ Taipei/ Vigor Kobo/ Martyrs' Shrine/ Handicraft Center/ National CKS Memorial Hall/ Ximen

(Taoyuan Holiday Inn or Taipei)

(B / L / X)

Miaoli Hakka Museum: Called "Age of Discovery," the 15th and 16th centuries saw a wave of global migration. At the time, mainland China was in political chaos and economic unrest, and therefore Hakka people moved aggressively to Taiwan. Those Hakka ancestors reclaimed the land and completely settled themselves down in Taiwan, not only practicing the customs and rituals that they had brought from their original hometown but also absorbing the nutrients from the new soil. A diverse and rich Hakka culture has thus burst out in Taiwan!

Martyrs' Shrine: The 330,000 men who sacrificed their lives to the revolution before the establishment of the Republic of China and who fell during the Sino-Japanese war and the Chinese Civil war are worshipped here. Plates of these brave and loyal martyrs have been inserted into the four walls of the main building in testimony of their heroic deeds.

Worth mentioning is the military police officers who guard the main gate, and who have been rigidly trained to stand like expressionless statues. Tourists alike are amazed at this display of composure and flock to see the ceremonial changing of the guards.

National CKS Memorial Hall: This memorial hall was built in memory of Chiang Kai-shek, the first president of the Republic of China. The memorial hall is white with a blue roof, representing the dominant colors in the ROC flag. A bronze statue of Chiang looks west symbolically to the Presidential Office Building and mainland China.

Ximen: It is the mecca for youth culture. From tatton street to Wannian Plaza accessory shops, cosplay to street dancing. Pop stars often come here for promotional events on weekends.
