Day 4: Iguazú

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure to visit the Argentine Falls (Includes income P.N). After taking the Ecological Train, we will enter the upper and lower footbridges of the Argentine National Park, approaching both the waterfalls that can practically touch. Such magnitude of wild nature obtains its maximum expression in "The Garganta del Diablo", where the tumultuous waters form countless rainbows.

We recommend to make the optional excursion "The Great Adventure", where the passengers of the boat will have a baptism under one of its jumps.

Upon completion, return to the hotel.

Day 5: Iguazú/ Buenos Aires

Breakfast at the hotel. Visit in the morning to the Brazilian Waterfalls (Including P.N income). The tour begins at the Visitor Center designed to be the gateway to the Park, operates as a center for boarding and disembarking visitors as to access the runway route it is necessary to ride modern panoramic buses that carry out the transfer within from the park. The extension of the footbridges is 1,200 meters from where you get a spectacular view of the 275 falls that make up the Iguazu Falls, of which the most important on the Brazilian side are four: Florian, Deodoro, Benjamin Constant and Salto Union or Garganta of the Devil After the tour you have access to the panoramic elevator that allows you to get to the bus that will leave you again in the access portal.

In the afternoon and at the scheduled time, transfer in regular service to the airport to take the flight to Buenos Aires.

Arrival, assistance and reception by our staff at the airport and transfer in private service to the selected hotel.
