

Colombia Cultural 2019

6 Days Medellín-Cartagena

The program is valid for the period of 11 Jan/ 2019 to 11 Jan /2020 (except Easter Week or Christmas Season or Events)

Day 1. Medellín

Arrival at Rionegro Airport in Medellín. Meeting and transfer to the hotel. Check in in the hotel.

Medellín- The capital of the department of Antioquia is undoubtedly one of the most attractive cities in Latin America. That is why it is considered the second most important city in Colombia and is recognized across the continent as a place that attracts people due to its special beauty and to the diversity of activities offered to residents and foreigners.

The city's pleasant climate gives it its nickname – the City of Eternal Spring – and the moderate temperatures put a spring in the locals' steps, at work and at play.

Here you can enjoy natural beauty of the Valley of Aburrá, feel cosmopolitan spirit and admire flowers and traditions. Every August, the city is festooned by the famous Feria de las Flores (Flower Festival), an event held since 1957, which pays tribute to the customs of Antioquia with music, dancing and cultural events.

Medellin is a modern city, with a rich and vibrant life; not in vain it has the largest collection of art by artist Fernando Botero. It also has a modern conventions center and amenities such as: restaurants, theaters, shopping centers and hotels just as any major capital of the world.

Day 2. Medellín

Breakfast in the hotel. At the agreed time you will enjoy an excellent day crossing the best touristic places of the city: San Antonio park, San Ignacio square, the traditional avenue La Playa, the Coltejer building, the Sculpture Park which has more than 20 sculptures by one of the most famous artist Fernando Botero; mansions and houses in El Prado neighborhood, the wishes park, the Atanasio Girardot stadium, the Convention Center La Macarena (It was a bullring before that). Return to the hotel.

Day 3. Medellín - Cartagena

After breakfast in the hotel you will be transferred to the airport to take a flight to Cartagena. Arrival at the airport of Cartagena and transfer to the hotel.

Cartagena Colombia's most popular city Cartagena de Indias was declared by UNESCO a World Heritage Site because of its colonial walled city; and just walking through to its cozy narrow streets is enough to understand why. It is divided into three sightseeing zones: the Historic Centre with Clock Gate, Carriage Square, San Peter Square, Palace of the Inquisition, The Cathedral, dating back to the 16th century, Santo Domingo Square, the Heredia Theatre and masterpiece San Felipe de Barajas Castle, built between 1639 and 1762 which is the greatest fortress ever built by the Spanish. The San Diego zone, with its enchanting Hotel Santa Clara, formerly Convent of the Saint Claire Order and Las BóvedasThe Vaults by the Santa Catalina Fortress and Getsemaní; the zone used to be a slave neighborhood and now hosts Cartagena's Convention Center and popular nightlife clubs. The real joy of Cartagena is exploring it's exhilarating narrow streets by foot or on a horse-carriage, an experience that awakens all senses with the flavors and warm breeze of its sunset, making it an incredibly romantic destination and the most fascinating Caribbean hidden treasure.

Day 4. Cartagena

Breakfast in the hotel.

In the afternoon we are going to the sightseeing Shuttle Tour.

The tour begins with panoramic view from 'La Popa' Monastery and Church. Continue to "San Felipe" castle-fortress built on "San Lázaro" hill to defend the city from pirate attacks. Walk-around the fortress and see the castle tunnels, underground galleries and passageways. Continue to Walled City, go to 'the Vaults', archways built within the walled-city used until late 1700s to store armament and later as prison in the XIX century. Nowadays, it's an artisans' center to appreciate local handcrafts.

Return to the hotel.
