Itinerary

Day 1: Hometown / Vancouver — Yellowknife — Aurora Viewing

Arrive at Yellowknife — capital of the Northwest Territories. Guests will be greet by staff and then transported to check-in at the hotel and pick-up winter clothing. Hotels are close to restaurants and the commercial district. After resting, guests have free time to shop and have dinner. At 9pm, transport will pick-up guests from hotel for their first night of aurora viewing. Guests can sit in heated cabins (coffee, tea, soup, meat buns and other refreshments are provided) while enjoying the beautiful aurora. The aurora viewing site also has five teepees so guests can have close encounter with the aurora. Return to the hotel at 1:30 am.

Day 2: Yellowknife Hotel — City Tour — Dogsledding — Aurora Viewing

After waking up, follow local guide and tour Yellowknife by bus. Guests will tour and visit the Northwest Territories Legislative Building, the Prince of Wales Northern Heritage Centre, and Old Town Yellowknife. They can also shop for souvenirs at local shops. At night, transfer to the kennel for dogsledding. Staff will teach and guide guests to dogsled and travel across twisting lanes and frozen lakes. Dinner will be at a local western restaurant (personal expenditure). After resting, a driver will take the group and navigate the lakeside to go aurora hunting. Guests will continue their aurora viewing after arriving at the aurora viewing site. Return to the hotel at 1:30 am.

Day 3: Yellowknife Hotel — Snowmobiling - Experience indigenous culture plus fried fish dinner — Aurora Viewing

In the afternoon, there are plenty of activities to do at the site including snowmobiling and the Aboriginal Culture Program (hot beverages and snacks will be served during the afternoon). In the evening, after the fish fry dinner, guests will head to the aurora viewing site for their last night of aurora viewing. Guests will be dropped off back at the hotel at 1:30 am.

Day 4: Yellowknife — Vancouver / Hometown

After free time in the morning, guests will be transported to the airport based on their flight schedule back to Vancouver or their city of departure, thus ending their Yellowknife adventure.
