

Full Day Countryside Of Penang

Start the day by hopping on the funicular train and ride up to the top of Penang Hill, rising spectacularly 830 meters above sea level. Witness the entire island of Penang from the lookout point. Next proceed to the Temple of Supreme Bliss, Kek Lok Si Temple is the largest Buddhist temple in Southeast Asia and arguably one of the most iconic landmarks in Penang. The centrepiece of the temple is the 7-tiered Pagoda of 10,000 Buddhas and adjacent to this imposing edifice is a bronze Statue of Guanyin (Goddess of Mercy), believed to be the tallest in the world. Lunch at local restaurant (lunch inclusive). Journey up to the end of Batu Ferringhi to Tropical Fruit Farm. You will be able to taste the home make fruit's Enzyme and Tropical Fruit Farm's Honey.

After the tasting, you will be able to relax and take in the breath-taking view while enjoying a wide variety of freshly cut fruits and a glass of freshly squeezed fruit juice of your choice. Stroll along Batu Ferringhi before heading back to hotel.
