

4 Days Yangon – Bagan – Yangon

Day 1: Yangon arrival and sightseeing (Lunch/Dinner)

Arrival at Yangon International Airport. Welcome by our well-experienced guide. Upon arrival, Visit to City center landmark Sule Pagoda, Mahabandoola Park and downtown of Yangon with remarkable sites of Colonial Buildings & City Hall. Visit to Chaukhtat Gyi, the biggest colossal reclining image in Myanmar. Lunch at local restaurant. After lunch transfer to hotel check in. In the afternoon, visit to Shwedagon Pagoda - described by Somerset Maugham: "The Shwedagon rose superb, glistening with its gold, like a sudden hope in the dark night of the soul of which the mystics write, glistening against the fog and smoke of the thriving city." This massive bell-shaped stupa rises nearly 100 meters above its hill-top surroundings. Wander through this magnificent structure and its courtyards, stupas, bells, temples, and Buddha images, and see religious and secular visitors from all parts of the globe. Shwedagon has become the symbol of Myanmar. Over-night at Hotel in Yangon.

Day 2: Yangon-Bagan (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

After breakfast at hotel, transfer to the airport for morning flight to Bagan. Arrive Bagan and visit. Bagan, one of Asia's most popular archaeological destinations and one out of two most pre-eminent religious old cities in South East Asia. The sightseeing starts with a visit to; Pyathatgyi (Pyathadar ) Temple. Pyathatgyi is one of the few remaining "double cave" monasteries and was built in the first half of the 13th century. Dhamanyangyi Temple - built by King Narathu in 12th century which displayed the finest brickwork in Bagan. Sulamani Temple. In the afternoon visit to the lacquer ware factory followed by a visit to local village. After that visit to Ananda Temple – one of the masterpieces surviving and remaining in Bagan and considered to be in the Mon architecture style; Thatbyinnyu Temple- the highest building on the Bagan plain, Shwegugyi Temple, the Palace site. Then visit to the hill to watch the sunset Overnight at hotel in Bagan.
